Excerpt from Bancroft Library: The Library of the University of California This is a little book about a big man. To those who knew Robert W. Speer intimately it will seem all too incomplete a record of the splendid works of his hand, materialized on every street in Denver; of those inspired vision-children of his brain, bequeathed as a priceless legacy to this city and, lastly, of his great heart. Mayor Speer excelled as a politician, as a financial director par excellence, as a builder, as an artist and as a man. He builded in terms of the spirit, as well as in stone. He left Denver his indomitable courage, his faith in her continuing greatness, definite visions for public improvement, the highest and purest civic ideals and the love of a father for a child. It took years for the citizens of Denver to realize his real worth. In the beginning, before his great creative works had been completed, he was a decade in advance of his fellow citizens in all his plans for civic betterment....
