From the sublime to the delectably absurd - Enjoy the challenge! Here we have the Author's entire output of short stories - fourteen of them - though excluding a few of what he calls poem-stories, which latter will appear in his Collected Poetry volume. They will therefore come under fire from some of the people who find themselves uncomfortably challenged by various aspects of the stories contents. Find perhaps a friend's, a relative's, or even your very own parental behaviour being shown up starkly for what it is, in A Squoggle Comes Home to Roost. Sit in with Rodney (Nothing, Sweet Nothings) to experience from an unusual viewpoint, laced with black humour, the monumental absurdity of the couch potato's life, forever watching TV and having no notion of there being anything worthwhile for which to live an active life. See...
