They were but a handful in number, poor in worldly possessions, outcasts indeed from the society of civilized men, and they constructed for themselves but the rudest dwellings in the unbroken wilderness. The event, so inauspicious apparently in its beginnings, has, however, proved to be one of the most memorable, not only in American history, but in the annals of the world. For here was inaugurated a government on an entirely new basis, embracing principles hitherto unknown or unrecognized in the polity of nations. Though now for the first time incorporated into a civil constitution, the principles themselves were as old as Christianity. Baptist principles may indeed be traced through all the Christian centuries from the beginning. They furnish a history - yet to be written - parallel with that of the Papal hierarchy, which too early acquired an almost absolute supremacy over the religious thinking of Europe. They appeared in the rise of the Donatists in the fourth century, of the Waldenses in the twelfth, of the Hussites in Bohemia who heralded the Reformation in the sixteenth.
