Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Being arrested for DUI in Washington State is an introduction to a world of complex law, demanding Judges, fickle prosecuting attorneys, biased Department of Licensing hearing officers, exaggerating police officers, and a multitude of conditions and expenses that seem to never end. Such punishment and conditions may include jail, probation, fines, court dates, a department of licensing hearing, license suspension, ignition interlock device, SR 22 insurance, alcohol evaluation, alcohol awareness class or treatment, and a DUI victim's panel, among many possible requirements. This is why most people feel overwhelmed after they face the sobering fact that they are in for a long and difficult journey. It is therefore important that a person who has been arrested for DUI immediately educate themselves about the many requirements demanded of them. The first thing you should do is confirm whether you have been provided a court date. Not every jurisdiction provides an immediate court date but many do, and in these jurisdictions you will need to appear within a few days of your arrest. As such you must prepare to appear in court so that you do not risk a bench warrant for your arrest. Washington Courts that typically demand you appear in court for an arraignment immediately following your DUI arrest include Seattle, Everett, Lynnwood, Edmonds, Mukilteo, Skagit County and Island County, just to name a few. The next thing you must do following a DUI arrest is to contact a qualified DUI attorney. Such an attorney should be a good sounding board and will be able to advise you about the immediate concerns. This is particularly true if you must immediately appear in Court as there may...
