Dept. of Education, Office of Planning, Evaluation and Policy Development, Policy and Program Studies Service, 2008 OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)229361521 Subject: Small schools -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Executive Summary The Smaller Learning Communities (SLC) program was established in response to growing national concerns about students too often lost and alienated in large, impersonal high schools, as well as concerns about school safety and low levels of achievement and graduation for many students. Authorized under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (Title V, Part D, Subpart 4, Section 5441 (b)), the SLC program was designed to provide local education agencies with funds to plan, implement, or expand SLCs in large high schools of 1, 000 students or more. The SLC legislation allows local education agencies to implement the most suitable structure or combination of structures and strategies to meet their needs. The U. S. Department of Education (ED) contracted with Abt Associates to conduct the Implementation Study of Smaller Learning Communities. The primary purpose of the study was to...
