Excerpt: . . . guardians, appointed in any of the States, territories or districts of the United States, whose Wards may have any property within this State, on bringing evidence of his or her appointment, and qualification as such guardian, duly certified and authenticated according to law, to apply to the Probate Court of the county in which such property may be situate, for an order authorizing such guardian to remove said property from this State, to the State, territory, or district, in which such guardian shall have been appointed and qualified as such; and such Probate Court, on being satisfied of the authority of such guardian, shall enter up an order authorizing the removal of such property by such guardian. Had it been shown to the Probate Court of Union county, that the minors in question were legally domiciled in Texas, and a guardian duly appointed for them there, with sufficient bond and security, the court would doubtless have had the power, and it would have been its duty, under the above statute, to order the administrators to pay over to such guardian the portions of their intestates estate due to his wards. Or if the property had been in the hands of a domestic guardian who was not legally entitled to the custody of the persons of the minors, the court perhaps would be authorized, on proper application, to order him to turn over to the guardian of their domicil entitled to such custody and care of their persons,...
