Favored in its location, strong in its resources, proud of its institutions and its people, it looks to the future with hope and confidence. THE HERMIT AT WORK--INTERIOR VIEW OF HIS HUT. (Cut loaned by Mr. S. R. Moseley.) James Gatl, the Hermit of Hyde Park, was born in Cheshire, England, in 1810, of reported wealthy parents; in early life he developed a great liking for the study of ornithology, and became a skilful taxidermist. He finally decided to come to America, much against the wishes of all friends, and after various trying experiences, finally settled in Grew s Woods, where he built a hut and spent his time in preparing a large collection of birds, beasts, and reptiles. He died February 2, 1875, sixty-five years of age, and his collection was sold to many local...
